

Compare & Contrast

Grade 3 Reading Comprehension Worksheet

Read each pair. Then answer the question.

Cake and Ice Cream

Cake is baked in an oven until it rises and turns golden. People often cover it with sweet frosting.

Ice cream is frozen in a freezer until it is cold and creamy. People often top it with hot fudge.

1. How are cake and ice cream alike?
 - a. Both are served frozen.
 - b. Both are baked in an oven.
 - c. They are both sweet treats for celebrations.

Newspapers and Storybooks

Newspapers tell about real events that happened today. Reporters write short articles with facts.

Storybooks tell made-up tales about characters. Authors write longer stories that come from imagination.

2. How are newspapers and storybooks alike?
 - a. They both have writing that people read.
 - b. Both tell made-up tales.
 - c. Both tell only true events.

Turtles and Rabbits

Turtles move slowly on short legs and carry a hard shell on their backs. They pull inside the shell to hide.

Rabbits move quickly on strong back legs and have soft fur. They run fast to escape danger.

3. How are turtles and rabbits alike?
 - a. They are both small animals that hide from danger.
 - b. They both have shells.
 - c. They both move quickly.