

Diwali Lights

Grade 3 Reading Comprehension Worksheet

Read the story, then answer the questions.

Diwali is the festival of lights in India.

Anaya helped her mother clean the whole house.

They placed small clay lamps on every window ledge.

Her father strung golden lights across the front door.

In the evening, the family lit each lamp one by one.

The streets glowed with thousands of tiny bright flames.

Anaya shared sweets with her friends next door.

They all promised to keep the festival safe and bright.

1. Who helped her mother clean the house?

2. What did they place on every window ledge?

3. Where did her father string the golden lights?

4. Why did the family clean the whole house?
