

Maya Learns to Swim

Grade 3 Reading Comprehension Worksheet

Read the story, then answer the questions.

Maya was afraid of the deep water in the big pool.
Her coach asked her to first splash in the shallow end.
She learned to float on her back like a starfish.
Next, she practiced kicking her legs while holding the rail.
Each day she swam a little farther than the day before.
One morning, she swam the whole length without stopping.
Her mother clapped and cheered from the side of the pool.
Maya felt proud, for practice had made her brave.

1. Who was afraid of the deep water at first?

2. What did Maya learn to do like a starfish?

3. Where did Maya first practice splashing?

4. Why did the coach start her in the shallow end?
