

Paragraph Parts: Graphic Organizer

Grade 5 Writing Worksheet

A good paragraph has a beginning, a middle, and an end. Plan your paragraph with the boxes below.

Prompt: "My favorite animal"

1. Topic Sentence

Say the main idea of your paragraph in one sentence.

2. Three Details

Add facts, examples, or reasons.

Detail 1

Detail 2

Detail 3

3. Closing Sentence

Wrap up your paragraph with a strong final thought.

Tip: Read your boxes in order. Does your paragraph make sense?

Unscramble a Paragraph: A Rainy Day

Grade 5 Writing Worksheet

The sentences below tell about a rainy day, but they are out of order. Write 1-4 in the circles to put them in the correct order.

① The rain drummed on the roof while lightning flashed across the sky.

② Dark clouds gathered over the town as the first drops of rain began to fall.

③ By evening, the storm had passed, and a rainbow arched over the wet streets.

④ Puddles formed quickly, and kids splashed through them in bright yellow boots.

Now write the paragraph in the correct order:

Writing Prompt: If I Had a Superpower...

Grade 5 Writing Worksheet

Imagine you could have any superpower in the world. Plan your ideas in the boxes, then write a paragraph about it.

My superpower:

Name the superpower you would choose.

Why I chose it:

What makes this superpower special to you?

Three amazing things I would do:

List three ways you would use your power.

Now write your paragraph:

Topic Sentence or Detail? Sort It Out

Grade 5 Writing Worksheet

A topic sentence tells the main idea. A detail sentence adds facts or examples. Read each sentence, then write its number in the correct box below.

① Our class trip to the zoo was full of surprises.

② The lion roared so loudly that the whole class jumped.

③ A parrot copied everything our teacher said.

④ Summer is the best season of the year.

⑤ The days are long and perfect for swimming.

⑥ My little brother is the funniest person I know.

⑦ He once wore a cape to dinner and called himself Captain Peas.

⑧ Dogs make better pets than cats.

TOPIC SENTENCES (T)

Write the sentence numbers here.

DETAIL SENTENCES (D)

Write the sentence numbers here.

Choose the Strongest Closing Sentence

Grade 5 Writing Worksheet

Read each short paragraph. Then circle the letter of the strongest closing sentence.

Recycling matters. Our school collects paper, plastic, and cans every Friday. These small habits help keep our planet clean.

- A Recycling is something we do on Fridays.
- B By recycling together, we can make our school and our world a cleaner place.
- C I like the color of the recycling bins.

My grandma tells the best stories. She grew up on a farm with twelve brothers and sisters. Her tales always end with a laugh.

- A That is why I love visiting my grandma.
- B Farms have lots of animals.
- C Twelve is a very big number.

Learning to swim was hard at first. I swallowed water and splashed a lot. But after a month of practice, I swam across the whole pool.

- A Pools are full of water.
- B I used to be scared of the water.
- C All that practice paid off, and now swimming is my favorite thing to do.

A Day at the Park: Plan and Write

Grade 5 Writing Worksheet

Plan a paragraph about a day at the park. Answer each question in its box, then write your finished paragraph on the lines.

Where and when?

Set the scene for your reader.

What happened first?

Start your story with an exciting detail.

What happened next?

Keep the action going.

How did the day end?

Give your paragraph a strong finish.

Now write your paragraph:

Beginning, Middle, End: Sort the Story

Grade 5 Writing Worksheet

This story about Mila and her puppy is all mixed up. Read each sentence, then write its number in the correct box: Beginning, Middle, or End.

① She called his name as she ran down the street.

② Mila found Max sharing a sandwich with a new friend.

③ Mila opened the front door and gasped.

④ She hugged him tight and promised to fix the gate.

⑤ A neighbor pointed toward the playground, where happy barks filled the air.

⑥ Max, her puppy, had squeezed through the gate and was gone.

BEGINNING

Write the sentence numbers here.

MIDDLE

Write the sentence numbers here.

END

Write the sentence numbers here.

Writing Prompt: The Best Trip I Ever Took

Grade 5 Writing Worksheet

Think of the best trip you ever took. Plan your ideas in the boxes, then write a paragraph that makes your reader feel like they were there.

Where did you go?

Name the place and when you visited.

Who was with you?

Tell about your travel buddies.

What was the best moment?

Describe the highlight of the trip.

Now write your paragraph:

Strong or Weak? Circle the Stronger Sentence

Grade 5 Writing Worksheet

A strong topic sentence is clear and tells the reader what comes next. In each pair, circle the letter of the stronger topic sentence.

- ☐ A My birthday party was fun.
- ☐ B My surprise birthday party was the best day of my life.

- ☐ A Soccer is a sport.
- ☐ B Learning soccer taught me the power of teamwork.

- ☐ A The library is my favorite place in the whole school.
- ☐ B I go to the library.

- ☐ A Pizza is food.
- ☐ B Making homemade pizza with my dad is a Friday-night tradition.

- ☐ A Horses are cool.
- ☐ B Horseback riding at the ranch was both thrilling and a little scary.

My Essay Planner

Grade 5 Writing Worksheet

Plan a whole essay on this page, then write your finished paragraph on the lines at the bottom.

My essay title: _____

Introduction — topic sentence

Hook your reader and state your main idea.

Three supporting details:

Detail 1

Detail 2

Detail 3

Closing sentence

Restate your main idea in a fresh way.

Write your final paragraph:
