

Fables & Morals

Grade 3 Reading Worksheet

Daisy Duckling's Loud Quack

Daisy Duckling loved her loud quack. She quacked at breakfast. She quacked at lunch. She quacked at dinner. One afternoon, the ducklings played hide-and-seek in the tall grass. Daisy hid behind the reeds and waited. When Mama Duck came looking, Daisy could not stay quiet. "QUACK! QUACK!" she shouted. Mama found her at once. "Daisy," laughed Mama, "there is a time to quack and a time to be still." Daisy nodded. In the next game, she stayed as quiet as a mouse, and won!

1. What is the moral of this fable?
 - a. Hide-and-seek is fun.
 - b. There is a time to speak and a time to be quiet.
 - c. Ducks like water.
2. How did Mama Duck find Daisy?
 - a. Daisy quacked loudly
 - b. She saw her tail
 - c. A frog told her
3. What happened in the next game?
