

Fables & Morals: Set 2

Grade 3 Reading Worksheet

The Proud Peacock and the Plain Sparrow

Percy the peacock loved his bright feathers. Every day he fanned his tail and said, Look how fine I am! A plain brown sparrow hopped nearby, looking for seeds. One rainy day, a hawk swooped down. Percy froze, but the sparrow darted into the bushes and hid. Percy learned that bright feathers do not keep you safe, but quick wits do.

1. What is the moral of this fable?
 - a. Rainy days are the best days.
 - b. Feathers are the most important thing.
 - c. Showing off does not keep you safe; quick thinking does.
2. What happened on the rainy day?
 - a. The peacock flew away
 - b. A hawk swooped down
 - c. The sparrow sang
3. How did the sparrow escape the hawk?
