

Stories with Questions

Grade 2 Reading Worksheet

Lily's Lemonade Stand

Lily wanted a new storybook, but it cost five dollars. She had only two dollars. "I will earn the rest," she said. Lily made cold lemonade and set up a stand in front of her house. She sold each cup for one dollar. Neighbors came to buy her lemonade. By sunset, she had earned four dollars. Now she had six dollars. That was enough for the book and a bookmark too!

1. Why did Lily sell lemonade?

- a. To earn money for a storybook
- b. To buy candy
- c. To help a friend

2. How much did each cup cost?

- a. Two dollars
- b. Five dollars
- c. One dollar

3. How much money did Lily have at first?

4. What else could she buy with the extra money?
